

Digital Researcher 2012 (#dr12vitae) - Day Programme (DRAFT)
British Library, London
20 February 2012

09:15 – 10:00 Participant registration and networking time - tea and coffee available

10:00 – 10:30 Introduction of group activity – the creation and sharing of an online exhibition/artefact

10:30 – 11:15 Plenary

- Welcome and introduction from the British Library
- Dr Tristram Hooley
 - academic practice and role of social media
 - intellectual property

11:15 – 11:35 Networking time - tea and coffee available

11:35 – 12:45 Introductory workshops (participants choose which workshop to attend)

- Identifying knowledge
- Creating knowledge
- Quality assuring knowledge
- Disseminating knowledge

12:45 – 13:30 Buffet lunch and networking time

13:30 – 14:45 Improving practice workshops (participants choose which workshop to attend)

- Identifying knowledge
- Creating knowledge
- Quality assuring knowledge
- Disseminating knowledge

14:45 – 15:45 Group activity continued - the creation and sharing of an online exhibition/artefact

15:45 – 16:30 Key note speaker – Prof Martin Weller, Open University – ‘Digital Scholarship’

16:30 – Online feedback form and event close