
VISION

Nurturing communities of researchers

MISSION

Providing a global voice for research staff and postdoctoral scholars

ICoRSA stands for the International Consortium of Research Staff Associations. ICoRSA is an umbrella organisation for researchers and research staff associations, consisting and representing the interests of a variety of associations and organisations that in themselves represent the interests of their members.

- Network of researchers from across the globe
- Gather evidence on the structure of research careers globally
- Engage in globally informed advocacy
- Empower research staff associations and researchers
- Provide best practice on researcher mobility, within and outside Europe and on researcher career related topics of:
 - gender equality
 - research integrity
 - open access
 - open science
 - sustainable and environmental research
 - incorporation of RRI dimensions into research
 - incorporation of SDGs into research

What we do:

Experts in Responsible Research and Innovation RRI – through RRING and GRRIP projects

Experts in the UNESCO Sustainable Development Goals SDGs

Experts in Quadruple Helix – members platforms and engagement through MUSICA project

Experts in the creation of networks – Lead partner in the creation of RRING network

Experts in workshops organisation and training

OUR MEMBERS

- National RSAs
Ireland, UK, France, Portugal, Spain, Hungary, Ukraine
 - International research associations
*WAYS
WFSW*
 - Research centres
EMBL
 - Research career development associations
VitaeUK
 - 89 individual researchers
-

Other facts:

Established in 2013 in Ireland

Signed MoU with: Eurodoc, Marie Curie Alumni Association, National Postdoc Association
