

The Society for Research into Higher Education (SRHE) is an independent and financially self-supporting international learned Society.

It is concerned to advance understanding of higher education, especially through the insights, perspectives and knowledge offered by systematic research and scholarship.

The Society's primary role is to improve the quality of higher education through facilitating knowledge exchange, discourse and publication of research. SRHE members come from across the world and from a variety of academic disciplines but share an interest in higher education research issues.

The Society has a wide set of aims and objectives. Amongst its many activities the Society:

- is a specialist publisher of higher education research, journals and books, amongst them Studies in Higher Education, Higher Education Quarterly, Research into Higher Education Abstracts and a long running book series.
- operates a regular programme of network events/seminars and professional development workshops throughout the year for researchers and practitioners working in higher education from every discipline.
- runs the largest annual UK- based higher education research conference and parallel conference for postgraduate and newer researchers. This is attended by researchers from over 35 countries and showcases current research across every aspect of higher education.

- Funds a series of dedicated research awards to members, non-members, and newer researchers, in order to encourage and support new research into higher education.

SRHE membership benefits include:

- Free attendance at SRHE network and professional development events
- Reduced rate journal subscriptions and books from a range of publisher catalogues
- Discounted rates for the SRHE conference
- Free subscription to Research into HE Abstracts & SRHE News
- The opportunity to apply for member research awards
- On-line access to the latest issues of a suite of higher education journals
