

VITAE CONCORDAT TO SUPPORT THE CAREER DEVELOPMENT OF RESEARCHERS

VITAE is consulting on the Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers.

The consultation presents a ten-year opportunity to shape the revisions that are needed to ensure the Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers remains fit for the future. The Concordat can make a real difference in improving the environment and career development for researchers and is important in helping develop the pipeline of talent and ensuring the UK maintains its leading position in research and innovation.

The AGCAS Research Students and Research Staff Task Group have provided a draft response to the consultation. Members are invited to input on this response. Please send comments and feedback on the consultation questions to our Governance and Communications Officer by 3 January 2019.
