Endorsement of Researcher Development Statement

RLUK is pleased to endorse the Researcher Development Statement. We see the Statement and the Researcher Development Framework as important tools in the formation of effective and highly skilled researchers.

We particularly welcome the focus on knowledge and information literacy as key features in the portfolio of the skilled researcher and RLUK members are committed to providing the highest level of support for UK researchers.

Yours Faithfully

RLUK, Research Libraries UK

RLU is a consortium of 29 of the largest research organisations in the UK and Ireland, including UK's the three national libraries. Founded more than 25 years ago, RLUK (formerly CURL) promotes the interests of research libraries, promulgates best practice in the sector, and supports innovative collaborative projects.
