

Vitae resources for doctoral candidates

Our website hosts a wide range of materials for use by and with postgraduate researchers.

Induction

Materials to use in induction sessions, to print or to link from your website:

- Videos, branded slides and interactive Prezi www.vitae.ac.uk/induction-resources
- Printable materials updated for 2015/16: 'Schedule for success' year-planner, 'Getting Started in Research lens on the Vitae Researcher Development Framework (RDF)', 'RDF postcard' www.vitae.ac.uk/get-press-files

Doing research

Materials you can recommend, use as a basis for handouts or link from your site, including:

- Are you thinking of doctoral research?
www.vitae.ac.uk/thinkingofaPhD
- Doing a doctorate www.vitae.ac.uk/doingadoctorate
- Resources and support for disabled researchers www.vitae.ac.uk/disability
- Part-time researchers on film www.vitae.ac.uk/PTfilms
- Researcher booklets, including the enterprising, the career-wise, the informed and the balanced researcher booklets www.vitae.ac.uk/booklets

Professional development

It's never too early to start. Resources to recommend or use in training sessions, including:

- The Vitae RDF (knowledge, behaviours and attributes of a successful researcher) www.vitae.ac.uk/RDFresearchers. Getting Started in Research is one of several lenses on the RDF - helping researchers to focus on areas for development www.vitae.ac.uk/RDFlenses
- Support for professional development planning: advice www.vitae.ac.uk/action-planning-tips; online course www.vitae.ac.uk/pdproc; app to support planning, review and storing evidence www.vitae.ac.uk/rdfplanner
- The Researcher on Placement has ideas and tips for finding and completing a successful internship www.vitae.ac.uk/researcher-on-placement
- Browse or search for tips and advice on wide-ranging topics relevant to researchers, from analysis to global citizenship, financial management to work placements www.vitae.ac.uk/prof-dev

Careers

Resources to encourage doctoral candidates to think ahead and think broadly, including:

- Practical advice on managing your career, presenting yourself www.vitae.ac.uk/careers and writing CVs www.vitae.ac.uk/cv
- Advice on pursuing and academic career www.vitae.ac.uk/academic-career
- Inspiration from over 150 researcher career stories www.vitae.ac.uk/career-stories
- Infographics on researcher careers by discipline: www.vitae.ac.uk/PhD-destinations
- The Career-wise Researcher: tips and quick exercises to support a pro-active approach to career www.vitae.ac.uk/careerwise

Training and other support

- See our library of resources for whole packaged programmes to short sessions www.vitae.ac.uk/resource-library
- Find printable materials by searching our publications section www.vitae.ac.uk/publications
- Bring the RDF alive for postgraduate researchers with our supporting resources www.vitae.ac.uk/RDFresources
- Running a Three Minute Thesis (3MT®)? Enter your winner into the Vitae competition www.vitae.ac.uk/3MT

For more information about Vitae resources for doctoral candidates, please visit www.vitae.ac.uk/researchers

Some resources are only available to those from Vitae member organisations